OFFICE ORDER

It is for the information of all the students that ragging has been completely banned in all educational institutions. The Hon'ble Supreme Court of India has given strict directions to implement the recommendations as laid down in the Raghvan Committee Report. The same has also been displayed on the Institution Notice Board for information of all the concerned. We are also serious about the implementation of the recommendation of the committee. Any student, who may face ragging by the seniors/outside, shall immediately bring this to the notice of the faculty/staff member available. Similarly, any student who finds ragging being done in institution campus/paying guest accommodation or any other place shall bring in the notice of the institution staff immediately. In case no faculty/staff is available nearby or during odd hours, the student may contact directly to the followings on their mobile phones:
