No. 132

Dated: 31.03.2026

OFFICE ORDER

It is for the information to the students who were detained on account of shortage of attendance or on account of internal assessment (IA) in the Even semester and marked with I grade in their Detail Marks Sheet (DMC) of previous semesters, that the improvement classes are going to be start in the month of April, 2026. Therefore, the interested students who want to attend the above said classes are required to submit the prescribed registration form (attached) for Improvement Term along with the Result Proof (DMCs) on or before 06/04/2026 before 4:30 PM to the academic branch through their respective departments. No application after the above said date will be entertained.

Further, it is informed that, as per ordinance No.12 (new) of HPTU, Hamirpur, student may register for maximum of three theory subjects and two practical subjects (total five subjects) during the Improvement Term. If a student has been detained in both "theory and Practical" of a subject, these will be considered as two separate subjects for registration purposes (e.g., if a student fails in both the theory and practical components of a subject, these will be treated as separate subjects, i.e., if a subject has theory code XX and practical code XXP, the theory and practical components will be considered as two independent subjects) The student will be required to pay the fee(s) for both the theory and practical components separately. Registration fee per theory subject per student is Rs. 5000/- and the registration fee per practical subject per student is Rs. 2500/-.
